CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 17th April 2006

PC :

1. The relief claimed in the Chamber Summons is that the written statement of defendant no.2 in the suit should be taken on record and delay in filing the same should be condoned in the interest of justice.

2. Upon perusal of the Chamber Summons, affidavit in support and reply thereto, I find no serious objection to the written statement of defendant no.2 being taken on record and the delay being condoned. Accordingly, Chamber Summonses are made absolute in terms of prayer clauses (a) and (b), subject, however, to the defendant no.1 paying costs quantified at Rs.1,500/- to the plaintiff in both Chamber Summonses. Payment of costs is condition precedent. Upon payment, written statement/s will be taken on record.
